

CAMPUS DEMOCRACY PROJECT

Barry's Campus Democracy Project (CDP) is a civic learning and democratic engagement initiative of the Center for Community Service Initiatives (CCSI). Co-chaired by a professor of political science and a student leader, the CDP Committee coordinates this nonpartisan initiative, which includes voter registration, education, and mobilization.

CDP Committee 2021–2022

Dr. Sean Foreman	—Committee Co-Chair Department of History and Political Science
Holly Kachler	—Committee Co-Chair Former Campus Election Engagement Fellow; Former ICUF (Independent Colleges and Universities of Florida) Presidential Fellow
Nadia Ahmad, J.D.	School of Law
Courtney Berrien	Center for Community Service Initiatives
Liz Calvo	Barry Service Corps: Civic Health Team
Dr. Paula Dias	Office of Mission Engagement
Alina Diaz-Cruz	College of Nursing and Health Sciences
Amanda Gonzalez Garcia	ICUF (Independent Colleges and Universities of Florida) Presidential Fellow
Mateo Gomez	Graduate Students
Steve Hendricks	Intercollegiate Athletics
Dr. Jalane Meloun	School of Education
Ginette Melchoirre	Division of Business and Finance
Dr. Thomas Merrill	School of Podiatric Medicine
Deborah Montoya	Campus Ministry
Dr. Fabio Naranjo	School of Social Work
Isabel Pulgarin	Barry Service Corps: Civic Health Team
Skylar Smith	Barry Service Corps: Civic Health Team
Dr. Manuel Tejada	School of Business
Diego Torres	Barry Service Corps: Civic Health Team
Judisha Williams	Department of Housing and Residence Life