Designation: Student Research Scholar Professor Short term scholar Specialist

Visa Type: F-1 J-1

Please read and certify the below information:

- I confirm that I am in lawful status and am eligible to return to the U.S.
- I will contact The Office of International and Multicultural Programs (IMP) if I will not return or if my return is delayed.
- I confirm that I will have a valid visa when I re-enter the U.S. (or I will be using automatic visa revalidation via the Contiguous Territory Rule) and I confirm that my passport is valid at least 6 months into the future.
- I certify that I have and will continue to have the required health insurance
- I confirm that I will review my new I-94 card and other documents for correctness upon re-entry to the U.S. before leaving the Customs area. I'll notify IMP immediately if there are any inconsistencies.

For F-1 and J-1 Students only:

- I certify that I am a full time student at Barry University and I confirm that I will continue to be enrolled full time upon return (or be engaged in authorized OPT or AT, or have an approved Reduced Course Load request).
- I confirm that my information on my I-20/DS-2019 reflects my current major/degree level/funding and that I will return by the beginning of the semester.

*Please note that all students should arrive on campus prior to the first day of classes.

If you are a student traveling during the academic semester, IMP recommends that you obtain a letter from your academic advisor approving your absence from the university during this time. Bring this letter with you when you travel.
