Application for Non-degree Admission Undergraduate or Graduate

Non-degree students are welcome to apply to Barry University for personal and/or professional enrichment or for purposes of teacher certification. There is a limit to the number of credits earned through non-degree studies. If in the future you wish to seek a degree, you will need to complete a degree application, which can be requested from the Admissions Office. Enrollment as a non-degree student in no way implies full admission to a degree program. Non-degree applicants are not eligible for financial aid or Barry's Tuition Assistance Plan.

Directions

1. Complete the application form.
2. Attach all required credentials (as stated below).
3. Enclose nonrefundable application fee ($30).
4. Mail or submit to the Office of Admissions.
