The screenshot shows the VA.gov website interface. At the top, the VA logo and "U.S. Department of Veterans Affairs" are on the left, and a search bar, "Contact us" link, and a "Sign in" button are on the right. A green arrow points to the "Sign in" button. Below the navigation bar, there are links for "VA Benefits and Health Care", "About VA", and "Find a VA Location". The main content area shows a breadcrumb trail: "Home > Education and training > GI Bill > Post-9/11 GI Bill > Check Post 9/11 GI Bill benefits". Below this, there is a section for "Education and training" with a "Get benefits" link and a plus sign. The main heading is "Post-9/11 GI Bill Statement of Benefits". Below the heading is a "Sign in to VA.gov" section. It includes a lock icon and "Secured & powered by ID.me". Under "Sign in with an existing account", there are three buttons: "Sign in with DS Logon" (highlighted with a red box and a green arrow), "Sign in with My HealtheVet", and "ID.me Sign in with ID.me". Below these is an "OR" separator, followed by "Don't have those accounts?" and a button for "ID.me Create an ID.me account". At the bottom, it says "Use your email, Google, or Facebook".

Post-9/11 GI Bill Statement of Benefits

✓ The Post-9/11 GI Bill Benefits tool is available

The tool is available Sunday through Friday, 6:00 a.m. to 10:00 p.m. ET, and Saturday 6:00 a.m. to 7:00 p.m. ET.

If you were awarded Post-9/11 GI Bill education benefits, your GI Bill Statement of Benefits will show you how much of your benefits you've used and how much you have left to use for your education or training. These education benefits can help cover some or all of the costs for school or training.

You'll be able to view this benefit statement only if you were awarded education benefits.
